Dear John:

We have very much appreciated the fine working relationship that has developed between your staff and the Review Board and staff. As near as I can tell, the process is working as it should with significant communication back and forth as we work together to make available to the American public as many assassination records as possible.

Thank you for your fine work. We appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "John", is written below the word "Sincerely,".
